REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The invention as claimed is not disclosed or rendered obvious in view of the prior art of record. The prior art of record fails to teach or suggest, alone or in combination, the claimed testing chamber comprising a holder adapted to support a wireless communication device under test; and an antenna arrangement, positioned on an inner wall of the testing chamber, adapted to be coupled to a data processing device to transmit shaped beams of signals, and to detect incident signals transmitted from the wireless communication device. The prior art of record fails to also teach or suggest, alone or in combination, the claimed apparatus comprising a chamber including an array of antennas positioned within an inner wall for receiving and transmitting signals; and a data processing device to selectively control the activation of the array of antennas, to modulate characteristics of the receive or transmit signals of the array of antennas and to determine the magnitude of the transmit and receive signals reflected off the inner wall.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

2. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Rowell et al. teach a field test chamber arrangement including an antenna arrangement positioned on an inner wall of the test chamber but fail to teach or suggest the claimed invention as stated above.
